men your use." The king would then have my head because of you, the guard whom the chief official then said to the guard over Daniel. Haniah, Mishael and Azariah. Give us nothing but vegetables to eat and water to drink. Then compare our appearance with that of the young men who eat the royal food, and we will see how we compare to them. Daniel and his friends agreed to this test.

At the end of the ten days they looked healthier and better nourished than all the other young men who ate the royal food. At the end of the ten days, the chief official said to Daniel, "I have found your food and drink better than that of all the other young men who eat the royal food. Give them what you want to eat and drink, and we will see how they compare to you."

So Daniel said to the chief official, "Let us be tested for ten days. Give us only vegetables and water. At the end of the ten days, we will compare our appearance with that of the young men who eat the royal food, and we will see how we compare to them. I will not defile myself with the royal food and drink, for I do not want to defile myself."
